

Additional Funding Opportunities for School Counseling

American Counseling Association: Student members of the American Counseling Association may apply for scholarships to pursue advanced education. Eligible students must be members and complete a personal essay www.counseling.org

Asa Hilliard, III Black Education Scholarship: The objective of this award is to support graduate counseling students who are committed to scholarly activities related to Black education and development. The scholarship recipient will receive a non-renewable award in the amount of $350 to support scholarly pursuits related to Black education www.multiculturalcounseling.org

Lullelia W. Harrison Scholarships in Counseling: This award ranges between $500 and $1,000 for students who plan to pursue counseling. It is offered through Zeta Phi Beta sorority and is based on applicant background www.ZPBNEF1975.org

Peace Scholarship Fund: The Philanthropic Educational Organization (PEO) awards up to $10,000 for graduate study for female students with demonstrated need. The organization strives to promote peace and understanding through education www.peointernational.org

Peg Carroll Scholarship: The ASGW Awards Committee invites applicants for the $2,000 scholarship given annually to honor Marguerite "Peg" Carroll, former ASGW President and pioneer in group work. The purpose of the award is to support the study of group work and further the understanding of group dynamics. Any student interested in the field of group work is eligible for consideration by the ASGW Awards Committee www.asgw.org